

K-LOVE provides a positive and encouraging format for good family radio that is good for the community and public in general. If KLOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster, the effect would be detrimental for all of us that make a point to listen to quality radio. Given some of the "manure" that is broadcast on radio and TV, I am pleased that my children are offered an alternative. The impact cannot be measured.